Stewart, Pres. G [Auburn Theological Seminary] Dec. 1914 (57)

December 1st, 1914

President G. Stewart,

Auburn Theological Seminary,

Auburn, N.Y.

My dear President Stewart:

It was very kind of you to ask me to go to Auburn next spring and deliver a sermon to your students. I am sorry that I have to decline your request as I have found it necessary to keep myself free from all such engagements, otherwise I should be overwhelmed with work that would draw me off from my regular duties. I only preach one sermon in a year, and that is the opening one to our students.

I should like, however, to go to Auburn some time, and possibly might on some occasion give a general lecture to the students, though I am afraid that this year, what with the war and matters arising out of it, my time is very fully occupied.

With kind regards, I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
